DETAILED ACTION

1. Applicant is advised that the Notice of Allowance mailed 1/13/2005 is vacated. If the issue fee has already been paid, applicant may request a refund or request that the fee be credited to a deposit account. However, applicant may wait until the application is either found allowable or held abandoned. If allowed, upon receipt of a new Notice of Allowance, applicant may request that the previously submitted issue fee be applied. If abandoned, applicant may request refund or credit to a specified Deposit Account.

2. Prosecution on the merits of this application is reopened on claims 53-56 considered unpatentable for the reasons indicated below. The following rejections constitute the complete set being presently applied to the instant application. This action is Non Final.

Priority

3. It is noted that the Oath/Declaration in the instant application claims priority to US application 09/060,756, now US Patent 6,183,957, filed April 16, 1998. Further, in applicant's response dated 11/21/2003, at page 10, priority claim to such application was used to overcome a rejection applied under 35 USC 102(a) (reference applied was published June 1998). This information, however, is not contained in the first line of the specification or an AD sheet. (The examiner has reviewed the application history and could not find any amendment to add the priority claim).

If applicant desires benefit of a previously filed application under 35 U.S.C. 120, specific reference to the earlier filed application must be made in the instant application. For benefit claims under 35 U.S.C. 120, 121 or 365(c), the reference must include the relationship (i.e., continuation, divisional, or continuation-in-part) of the applications. This should appear as the first sentence(s) of the specification following the title, preferably as a separate paragraph unless it appears in an application data sheet. The status of nonprovisional parent application(s) (whether patented or abandoned) should also be included. If a parent application has become a patent, the expression “now Patent No. _____” should follow the filing date of the parent application. If a parent application has become abandoned, the expression “now abandoned” should follow the filing date of the parent application.

If the application is a utility or plant application filed under 35 U.S.C. 111(a) on or after November 29, 2000, the specific reference must be submitted during the pendency of the application and within the later of four months from the actual filing date of the application or sixteen months from the filing date of the prior application. If the application is a utility or plant application which entered the national stage from an international application filed on or after November 29, 2000, after compliance with 35 U.S.C. 371, the specific reference must be submitted during the pendency of the application and within the later of four months from the date on which the national stage commenced under 35 U.S.C. 371(b) or (f) or sixteen months from the filing date of the prior application. See 37 CFR 1.78(a)(2)(ii) and (a)(5)(ii). This time period is not extendable and a failure to submit the reference required by 35 U.S.C. 119(e) and/or 120, where applicable, within this time period is considered a waiver of any benefit of such prior application(s) under 35 U.S.C. 119(e), 120, 121 and 365(c). A benefit claim filed after the required time period may be accepted if it is accompanied by a grantable petition to accept an unintentionally delayed benefit claim under 35 U.S.C. 119(e), 120, 121 and 365(c). The petition must be accompanied by (1) the reference required by 35 U.S.C. 120 or 119(e) and 37 CFR 1.78(a)(2) or (a)(5) to the prior application (unless previously submitted), (2) a surcharge under 37 CFR 1.17(t), and (3) a statement that the entire delay between the date the claim was due under 37 CFR 1.78(a)(2) or (a)(5) and the date the claim was filed was unintentional. The Director may require additional information where there is a question whether the delay was unintentional. The petition should be addressed to: Mail Stop Petition, Commissioner for Patents, P.O. Box 1450, Alexandria, Virginia 22313-1450.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

4. Failure to properly designate priority appears to be an inadvertent error on applicant's part. However, if applicant does not wish to claim priority to the '756 application, the rejection made at section 9 of the office action mailed 5/21/2003, under 35 USC 102(a) is reinstated herein. An amendment in response to this office action, to perfect the priority claim, or evidence that an amendment to the specification was already made (or that the priority claim is contained in an AD sheet) would overcome this rejection.

Double Patenting

5. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Art Unit: 1634

6. Claims 53-56 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 9-11 and 13 of U.S. Patent No. 6,183,957. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the claims are coextensive in scope. The overlapping subject matter is as follows. Instant claims 53-56 are drawn to purified polynucleotides comprising an open reading frame within SEQ ID NO: 1, as set forth in the claims. Claims 9-11 and 13 of the '957 patent are drawn to purified polynucleotides isolated by the specific hybridization method of claim 7. As defined by the specification of the '957 patent (which is identical to the specification of the instant application), the method of claim 7 of the '957 patent was used to isolate SEQ ID NO: 1 of the instant application (see instant specification, page 4, last para; page 10, 4th para; page 11, 2nd full para, and 6th full para; and page and page 13, beginning at 2nd para. See '957 patent: cols 3-4, and cols 7-20). SEQ ID NO: 1 is a 12.7 kb chromosomal fragment isolated from and unique to M. tuberculosis and contains 11 ORFs. Accordingly, the scope of the subject matter directed to claims 9-11 and 13 of the '957 patent and that of instant claims 53-56 overlap and are not distinct from one another. As stated in MPEP 806.05: "If nondistinct inventions are claimed in separate applications or patents, double patenting must be held, except where the additional applications were filed consonant with a requirement to restrict in a national application." Further, MPEP 804 (IIB) states: "Further, those portions of the specification which provide support for the patent claims may also be examined and considered when addressing the issue of whether a claim in the application defines an obvious variation of an invention claimed in the patent. In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 441-42, 164 USPQ 619, 622 (CCPA 1970). The court in Vogel recognized "that it is most difficult, if not meaningless, to try to say what is or is not an obvious variation of a claim,” but that one can judge whether or not the invention claimed in an application is an obvious variation of an embodiment disclosed in the patent which provides support for the patent claim. According to the court, one must first “determine how much of the patent disclosure pertains to the invention claimed in the patent” because only “[t]his portion of the specification supports the patent claims and may be considered.” The court pointed out that “this use of the disclosure is not in contravention of the cases forbidding its use as prior art, nor is it applying the patent as a reference under 35 U.S.C. 103, since only the disclosure of the invention claimed in the patent may be examined.”
